

Pretzables™

SWEETS WITH A TWIST

Designer Chocolates

It's no secret that women have a sweet obsession with sexy shoes...and chocolate! Pretzables was thrilled to provide decadent favors for the VIPs who attended the February 15th Brian Atwood event at Nordstrom's in Chicago. After spending the evening sipping cocktails and slipping into gorgeous heels by celebrated shoe designer Brian Atwood, guests received a custom made box of Pretzables elegantly tied with Brian's signature ribbon.

A Chocolately Twist For Easter

Easter is Sunday, April 8th, so be sure to place your orders by April 5th to ensure delivery. Pretzables will cure your chocolate cravings and make a beautiful addition to any Easter basket or table centerpiece. Over-the-top chocolate designs are paired with nostalgic candies such as toffee, sprinkles, m&ms™ and nonpareils to create edible masterpieces as colorful and delicate as homemade Easter eggs!

Try Our NEW Pretzabits!

We're delighted to re-introduce fun, flavorful and scrumptious Pretzabits for spring. Our latest pretzel creations are unbelievable bite sized gems with a new twist! Pretzabits are salty pretzel bits drenched with chocolate and combined with sweet and surprising "mix-ins" to create a decadent bite size chocolately cluster. It's the ideal snack to indulge your sweet tooth and is the perfect cure for any midnight chocolate craving! Each month, a new Pretzabits flavor will be introduced -- so check back often and try them all.

Pretzabit of the Month · "Windy City White"

Pretzables is Kosher!

Pretzables is kosher certified, receiving certification on February 7, 2007, from Cleveland Kosher. Pretzables certification is recognized regionally, nationally and internationally. Pretzables is committed to serving customers, who for religious or dietary reasons are "restricted" to kosher food products. As of February 2007, all Pretzables' products carry the necessary OU-D symbol on its packaging. Neither the taste nor the ingredients are compromised as a result of the kosher certification.
